There are also beautiful examples of baroque and rococo architecture to marvel at too. Explore the centuries-old town walls and their gates, which also act as a dividing line between the old town and the more modern part of Martina Franca.

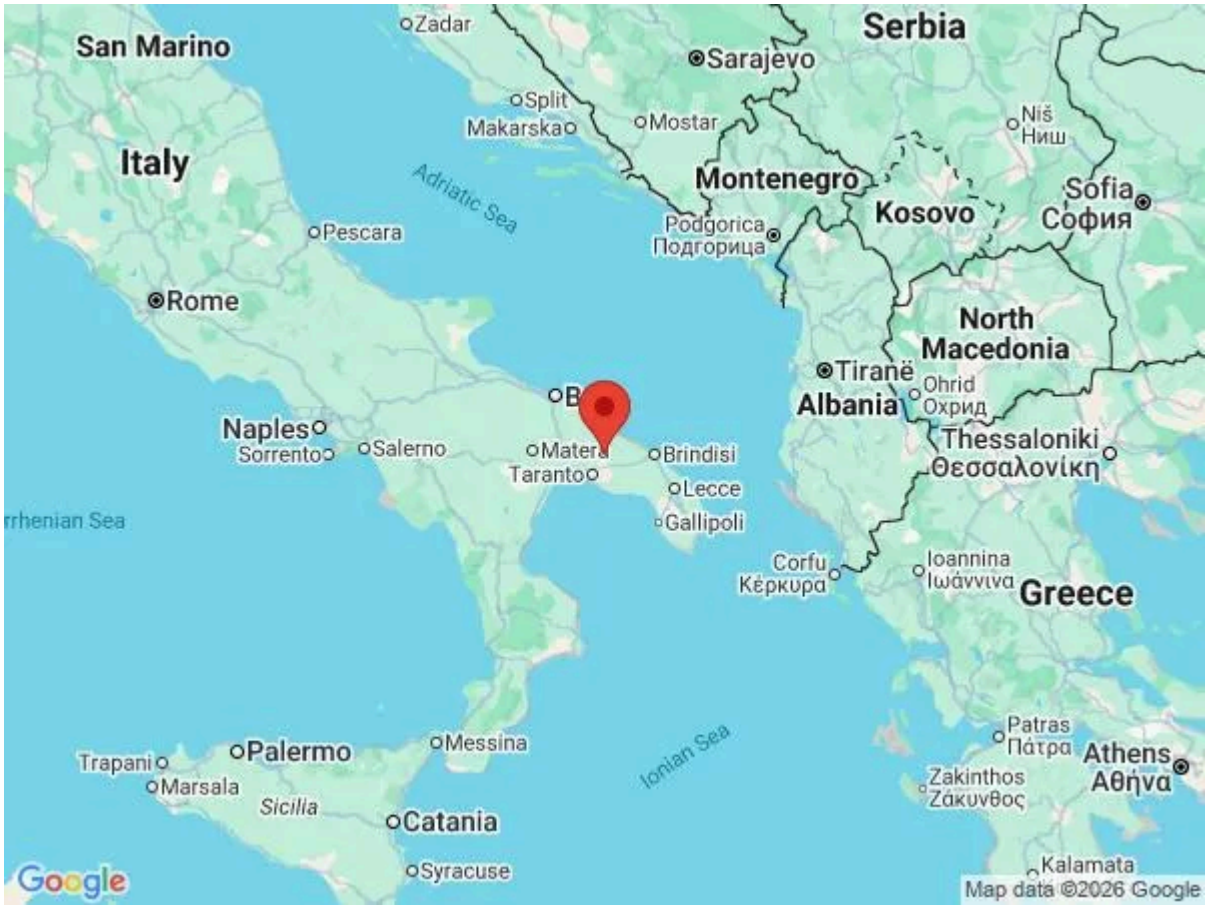

The town of Ceglie Messapica (12km) is a foodie's heaven, with its huge range of restaurants and pizzerias serving regional cuisine. It's also one of the oldest towns in the whole of Puglia, meaning there's plenty to tick off your historic sightseeing list. Discover ancient churches, beautiful palazzi and stunning Castello di Ceglie Messapica. Also visit Grotte di Montevicoli just outside Ceglie Messapica for an underground adventure.

Ostuni (24km) is also known as 'The White City', due to the old town's whitewashed buildings. One of the most well-known historic landmarks is the 15th-century cathedral, so it's a must-visit. A fresh fruit and vegetable market is held every Saturday and is a great way to rub shoulders with locals. If you visit Ostuni towards the end of August you have the chance to experience the Cavalcata di Sant'Oronzo festival.

For a day out at the beach, head to Villanova (32km) or Savelletri (40km). These coastal spots both offer sandy stretches and ideal swimming conditions in the clear, calm sea.

The Torre Guaceto Nature Reserve (45km) makes for a great day out. This coastal and marine reserve offers a visitor centre and museum, as well as the chance to see a variety of wildlife.
