

Casa Acacia

Region: Menorca Sleeps: 6

Overview

Located in the beautiful, family-friendly town of Son Bou, a short walk from the long sandy shores of the Son Bou beach, Casa Acacia offers an idyllic family holiday home, with a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The fantastic location allows you to enjoy the beach and all the bustling local shops and restaurants, whilst benefiting from the peace and quiet of your own private villa. Sleeping six guests, this charming villa offers the perfect balance of indoor and outdoor living, with stunning sea views from each room. The villa is ideal for families or couples travelling together looking to soak in some sunshine and relax.

The whole interior feels like a home away from home, with spacious, open-plan rooms, perfect for families with young children. The main living space is open, with a fully-equipped kitchen, sociable dining area and a cosy lounge located just a couple of steps from the kitchen. With homely furnishings and an atmospheric fireplace, this living area feels so welcoming, the kind of space you settle into, put your feet up and fully relax. The first double bedroom boasts an en-suite bathroom, whilst the remaining two twin bedrooms share a family bathroom, all designed to meet your every comfort. Casa Acacia is suited to those who want to open a front door and switch off, with a laid-back ambience, this welcoming property offers ease for the whole family.

The second dining area can be found out on the veranda, overlooking the stunning ocean, perfect for al-fresco evenings, finishing off a bottle of chilled Spanish wine. As you step out to the terrace, the tranquillity of the view, sets the scene for you to completely relax! The barbecue always proves popular with guests, perfect for summer family feasts! The glistening private swimming pool takes pride of place on the terrace, ideal for cooling off on hot summer days. With something for everyone, this charming family villa offer the perfect Spanish escape for an unforgettable holiday in the sunshine.

Location & Local Information

Just 30-minutes from Manorca's Airport and half way along the South coast, Son Bou is the perfect base from which to explore this magical Island. Visit Manorca's charming capital Mahon, and its former capital Cuitadella with its medieval streets and gothic architecture, in only a 30-minute drive. In a five-minute drive you can find yourselves ambling down the picturesque streets of the small bustling market town of Alaior with its whitewashed buildings and its crowning glory the beautiful Santa Eulalia Church. And for all history lovers, the prehistoric village of Torre d'en Gaumes, one of the largest Talayotic settlements on Menorca, is only a 10-minute drive from Son Bou.

San Bou itself was built with family holidays at its forefront. The resort resides behind a beautiful nature reserve, along a pristine beach, with an abundance of facilities on its doorstep. The town comprises of well-stocked supermarkets, a pharmacy, boutique, craft and designer shops, an array of restaurants, and a nightclub. Together with its proximity to one of the most beautiful beaches in Menorca, the location ensures you won't ever be far from what you need.

With over 3km of fine golden sand, this resort has so much to offer the perfect beach holiday. Populated by several beach bars, with water sports options ranging from pedalos to water skiing, and sun beds and umbrellas at your fingertips, long lazy days or active afternoons are a must. And with sumptuous sand dunes rather than high-rise hotel blocks serving as a backdrop, you'll have stunning views for company. Just a warning that the beach is often frequented by Naturists, so if public nudity is not for you, you may want to avert your eyes!

For more water-based entertainment, San Jaime, a 5-minutes walk from Son Bou, offers the well-recommended Sant Jaime Club – hosting a restaurant, large swimming pool, paddling pool for younger children, and a water slide. There is also an indoor amusement area and late club night offering live music and entertainment for the big kids amongst you!

Whether you're looking to keep little ones occupied or just enjoying a relaxing holiday yourselves, Son Bou is the ultimate destination for beach lovers. With a great array of amenities on your doorstep and larger destinations only a short drive away, don't miss this magnificent part of Menorca.
