Inglethorpe Hall

Region: East Of England Sleeps: 20

Overview

A magnificent Georgian country house in the heart of Norfolk, where timeless elegance meets unforgettable celebrations. Surrounded by thirty acres of sweeping parkland on the edge of the Royal Sandringham Estate, Inglethorpe Hall is an impressive Grade II listed country house dating back to the 18th century. Rich in history, character and original architectural features, this remarkable home offers an authentic country house experience for families and friends looking to celebrate together in truly memorable surroundings.

Inglethorpe Hall has plenty of historic charm, with original fireplaces, sash windows, decorative plasterwork and four-poster beds adding character throughout. Spacious living areas include two interconnecting sitting rooms, a games and television room, a snug, a large country kitchen with breakfast area and a formal dining room designed for sociable group stays. The nine bedrooms are individually styled with vintage furnishings, floral wallpapers and garden views, while the bathrooms feature freestanding baths and walk-in showers.

Outside, guests can enjoy a generous terrace for alfresco dining, acres of lawns and mature trees, including a remarkable Cedar of Lebanon believed to be over five hundred years old. The hall is perfectly placed for exploring Holkham, Wells-next-the-Sea and Brancaster, along with Norfolk's renowned wildlife reserves, historic estates and excellent restaurants.

The three booking options available at Inglethorpe Hall are: 3 night weekend stay, a 4 night midweek, or a whole week. Changeover days are Monday and Friday. 1 and 2 night bookings are available, but are priced at the same rate as 3 night bookings.*

Although Inglethorpe Hall is listed as having 9 bedrooms, sleeping up to a maximum of 20 people, there are 3 additional cottages (sleeping up to an additional 14 people) located within the grounds that can be rented at an additional cost. Please ask our concierge team for additional information regarding prices for the additional cottages.*

Location & Local Information

Inglethorpe Hall enjoys a fabulous countryside setting in North Norfolk, close to the Royal Sandringham Estate and within easy reach of some of the county's most beautiful beaches, nature reserves and historic houses. The area is a paradise for birdwatchers, walkers, cyclists and golfers, with RSPB Snettisham and Titchwell both nearby, offering spectacular birdlife and coastal scenery throughout the year. Sailing trips, seal-watching excursions and watersports are also popular along this stretch of coastline.

North Norfolk's famous beaches are all close by, including Old Hunstanton, Holme-next-the-Sea, Brancaster and the breathtaking sands of Holkham Bay. Visitors can explore the vast Holkham Estate with its grand hall, woodland trails and outdoor activities, or spend afternoons browsing the independent boutiques, galleries and gastropubs of Burnham Market and Holt. Sandringham House, the private royal residence, is also nearby, alongside scenic walking and cycling routes through woodlands, dunes and open countryside. From coastal adventures to charming market towns and exceptional dining, there is so much to discover in this beautiful part of Norfolk.
