

Villa Certosa

Region: Corfu Sleeps: 6

Overview

Three-bedroom Villa Certosa is a Corfu gem. Only built 3 years ago, the new, stylish, white-washed villa is in a peaceful spot near the sleepy fishing village of Pentati, on the west coast of the island. Built into the hillside, it flaunts dramatic sea views and is the perfect place to watch a dreamy sunset. Elegance and modern are the buzzwords at the villa. Think sleek lines, soothing natural colours and luxury facilities. Perhaps the star feature is the infinity pool which looks as if it's spilling directly into the sea. From this serene spot, you're well placed to explore this fantastic part of Corfu, so rent a car to enjoy it.

From this villa, you're only a short walk from local tavernas and shops, there is a nearby beach but the road is very rocky and steep, it has crystal glass-clear waters though. Look out for mezes and locally-caught seafood in the tavernas. When you're not exploring the beautiful cobbled streets in the village, or trying the local cuisine, you can relax on one of the cushioned sun loungers lining your pool; find your perfect reading spot under shade, or enjoy your meals on the alfresco dining table.

Inside, there's a living area with a large sofa, comfortable armchairs and a television. For those relaxed family evenings in, the smart television allows you to access the most popular platforms for movie rentals. There's also an indoor dining table and a fully-equipped kitchen. Plus, chefs are available on request for breakfast, lunches and dinners – fancy. Continuing the decadence, the three bedrooms each have en-suite bathrooms and king-size beds that have memory foam mattresses and pillows to help you get your perfect night's rest. Each room also has plenty of wardrobe space for organising your holiday belongings and smart televisions. Bathrooms are spacious and modern, and have double sinks and large walk-in showers. The area is mostly rural and we recommend to have a car so you do get a real taste of authentic Greek life.

Location & Local Information

Villa Certosa in the sleepy fishing village of Pentati in the western part of Corfu, and is about 4km south of Agios Gordios. The town is quiet and hasn't given way to mass tourism yet so that you can expect a peaceful atmosphere. There are a couple of local tavernas and cafes, as well as a beach (3km). Plus, there are the old villages of Ano Pavliana and Kato Pavliana and nearby for you to explore. Whilst you can walk to these things we'd recommend a car to really enjoy the area.

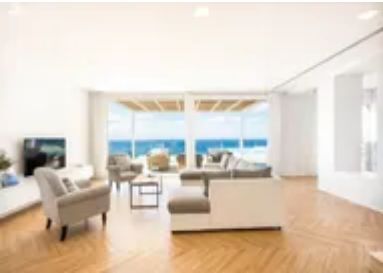

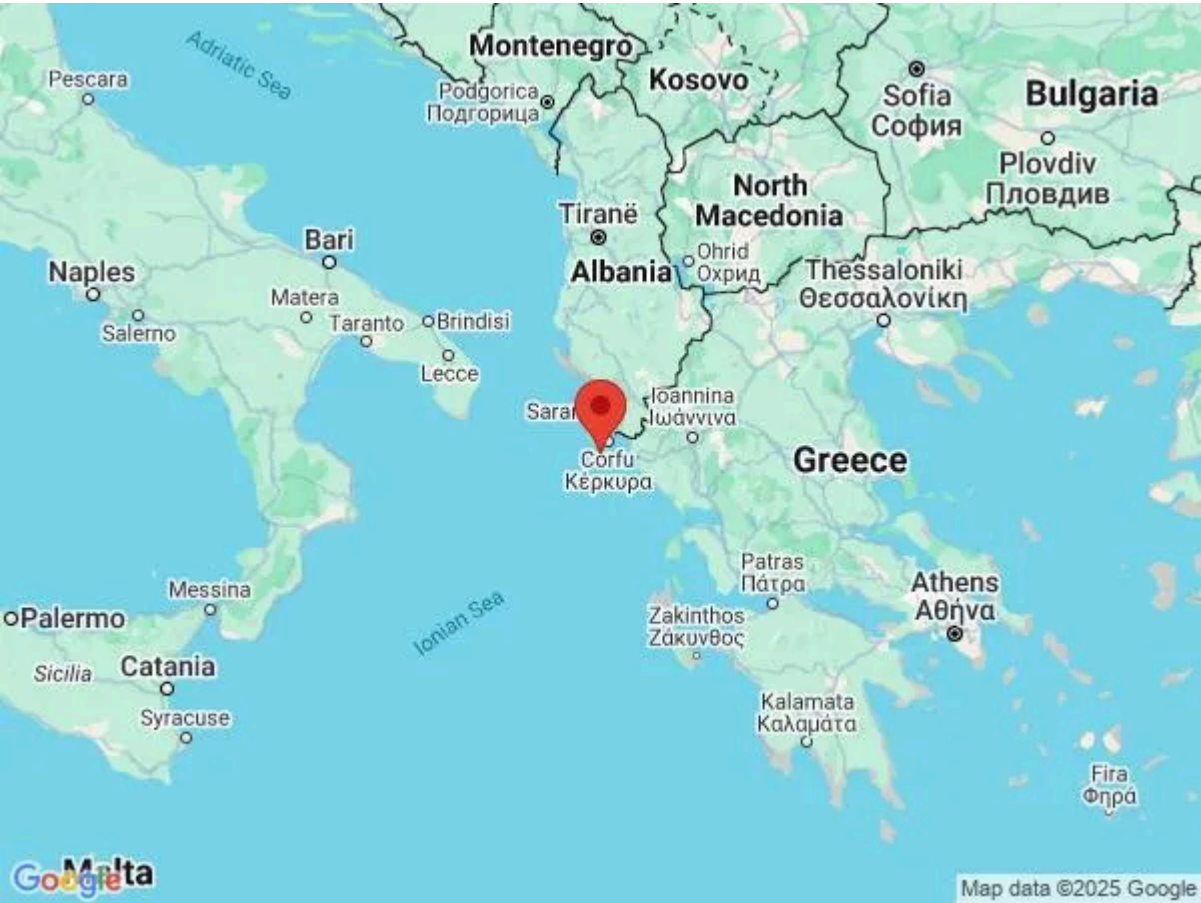

In the resort village of Agios Gordios, there's a famous Blue Flag Beach that's perfect for sunbathing, swimming and snorkelling. The beach is nestled among the mountains and surrounded by olive tree forests, vineyards and impressive rocks. To reach it, you need to drive through a beautiful road full of vineyards and olive trees. There are a couple of restaurants and cafes nearby, and plenty of opportunities to take part in watersports like sea kayaking and jet skiing. There are also plenty of shops, restaurants and cafes in the village, and the pastel-coloured houses are worth exploring.

Beyond Pentati, about 3km away, is the authentic village of Sinarades. There you'll find a Folklore Museum with an old housed, furnished as it would have been in the 19th century. There's also a fantastic walking trail near here – the Corfu Trail – which follows tracks and cobbled paths and goes from taverna to taverna, through the rural countryside and around the coastline.

The centre of Corfu is about a 30-minute drive from Pentati. In Corfu Old Town, you can explore the Venetian-style neoclassical architecture. Walk along the cobbled streets between the high houses, buy traditional products or visit the hidden gardens. To the west, there's a Fortress with fantastic views over the harbour. Corfu is also known for its friendly tavernas serving everything from Moussaka to Souvlaki. Sample imported beer, get your fill of pastries and delicious fresh pies at one of the bougainvillaea-draped bakeries or head to one of the sun-soaked beaches.

What we love

- Built into the hillside, so expect breathtaking views of the azure sea below
- The infinity pool looks as if its spilling into the sea
- Peaceful and private spot yet you're only a short walk from a tavernas, shops and beach are a little further but walking is possible.
- The villa is furnished to a high standard with good quality appliances and linens.
- The owner has installed 'Starlink' internet, which has extended the WiFi coverage throughout the villa and it's grounds
- Memory foam mattresses will help you have your best nights sleep
- A new barbecue has been installed in 2024

What you should know...

- The villa is on an incline so it's easier getting to the beach than it is getting back, better to drive to another beach 3km away
- Due to the design of the infinity pool, children need to be supervised
- A bit of a steep walk/drive down ramp into property but is very short
- Not very suitable for young kids- stairs are only partially covered with fence and children could fall, also the infinity pool has a steep drop that children could fall from.
