Location & Local Information

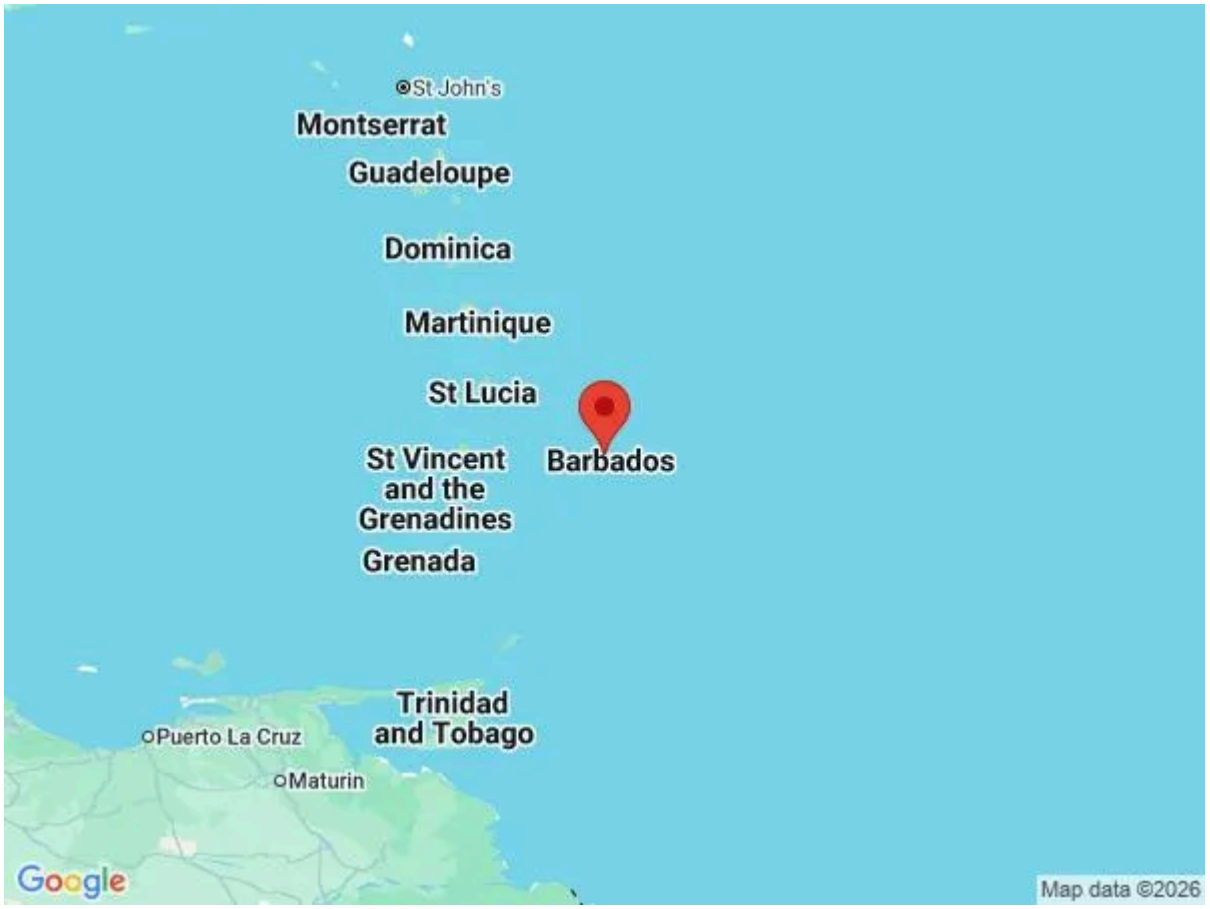

Let tranquillity overtake you at the local St. James Parish Church, only a 10-minute drive away. The charming old colonial church sits amongst beautifully-kept gardens and was one of the first locations visited by English settlers in 1627. A tour guide will be more than enthusiastic to show you around, giving you a window into history spanning centuries.

Sat on the edge of a cliff, the stone church boasts impeccable views over the ocean, which perfectly complements its stunning architecture. Inside, the building is created using local materials, highlighting its unique Bajan character. The church's cemetery is a meditative place containing tombstones dating all the way back to the 1600's. In February, the church is wonderfully decorated with flowers to celebrate the island's traditional harvest festival.

The peaceful Heywoods beach lies just a 4-minute drive away from the villa. The beach benefits from serenity as it rarely becomes overcrowded and boasts beautiful and calm waters that are ideal for swimming in. Visitors can also indulge in a spot of snorkelling around the rocks as the water is clear and possesses a plethora of striking marine life. When visiting Heywoods, it is advised you bring your own towels and snacks, as there isn't anywhere to buy these items at the beach. You can easily spend a few hours here at the hottest time of the day.
