Pride Villa

Region: Holetown Sleeps: 6

Overview

Pride Villa is where the enchanting countryside and beautiful tropical beach meet. Situated within the prestigious centuries-old Porters estate, the home is surrounded by gorgeous greenery and is only a 10-minute drive away from the charming Sandy Lane beach. Pride Villa is reachable via a lovely driveway that runs through a magical mahogany forest.

The home is truly a tropical paradise and is enhanced by a beautiful lily pond surrounded by flowering hedges. A small garden with a well-kept lawn and striking wall designed entirely of wooden shutters provides more space to enjoy the great outdoors from.

Inside, the home is tastefully styled throughout and consists of an original wing and a modern wing that was recently added. You will find the living room in the home's original wing. The large and spacious living room boasts a laidback colour palette and a comfy seating area, where guests can unwind from the day's activities. Indoor dining will be a special experience at Pride Villa. The room benefits from a dramatic high ceiling and marble floors, a distinctive woodwork design, rustic décor and a unique metalwork chandelier.

The contemporary kitchen is designed with attractive marble floors and quartz counter tops; however, you'll be spending very little time here due to the villa's in-house talented cook.

The home's stellar feature is a spectacular sheltered veranda with plenty of cosy seating areas and views of the pool. Here, you can spend days enjoying the brilliant sunny weather and the glistening private pool.

Location & Local Information

St. James is an enchanting nearby local church that can be visited for a peaceful retreat. St. James marks one of the first locations visited by settlers to the island in the 1600's. Today, it is steeped in intriguing history.

The church's beautiful architecture is a wonderful sight against the ancient trees that are dotted across the church's grounds. St. James is the oldest church in Barbados, yet still puts on a tranquil and uplifting Sunday service, complete with an organ that still plays music. Inside, the church is decorated with exquisite stained-glass windows, poetry and a gorgeous Tree of life pottery mosaic. Outside, ancient grave stones remind visitors of how much history the church has seen. It's best to visit here in the morning or midday when you can take in the serenity of the local surroundings and enjoy the views, lit up by the sunshine.

The Lone Star is a local restaurant that fuses European and Caribbean cuisines to create something truly unique and delicious. The venue serves wood stone-fired pizzas, a range of salads and fresh seafood as well as an array of dazzling cocktails in the brand-new cocktail lounge.

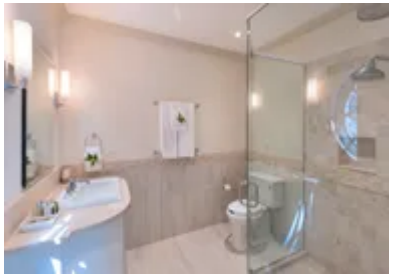

Take a trip to Lone Star in the morning and enjoy devouring your tasty breakfast on the beach, on the restaurant's Boardwalk. Inside benefits from luxurious white décor and the walls are emblazoned with vibrant artworks.
