Moradia Martin

Region: Funchal Sleeps: 8

Overview

Situated in a family-friendly neighbourhood, just outside of the historic Capital of Funchal, close to the beautiful fishing town of Camara de Lobos, this stunning modern villa is the perfect abode for those wanting to relax in luxury whilst knowing you are within easy reach of a wide variety of activities.  The picturesque town of Camara de Lobos boasts a beautiful bay where colourful fishing boats pull up onto the grey beaches, overlooked by some of the highest cliffs in Europe. Here you'll discover the beauty that inspired Winston Churchill to paint his celebrated pictures of the region. And with lively Funchal and the lovely Praia Formosa Beach just a stroll away, you'll have plenty to discover on your doorstep.

This stunning modern dwelling offers up to eight guests a stylish retreat, boasting bright generous living spaces with luxurious finishes. The main open-plan living area is drenched in natural light through a bank of glass doors that open onto the lovely terrace, optimising that year-round Madeiran sunshine and spectacular views out over the Atlantic Ocean. This elegant space boasts sleek wooden floors, sumptuous seating, an elegant dining table and attractive artwork throughout. You'll also find a fantastic modern kitchen that also benefits from glass doors onto the terrace area.

There are three elegant bedrooms here at Moradia Martin. With stylish design features, fitted wardrobes, wonderful en-suite bathrooms and glass doors out onto a sunny terrace, you'll love the luxury they afford. The master suite, with its separate lounge area and stunning sea views will truly take your breath-away. And for additional guests there is another delightful room with a comfortable sofa-bed.

As you step out onto the terrace from the ground floor, you will be greeted by the inviting outdoor pool set amongst a beautifully manicured lawn. Dive in to cool off under that warm Madeiran sun and take your time to gaze out over the glistening Ocean. Soak up some rays on one of the luxurious loungers, before heading to the terrace for some shade as you quench your thirst with a glass of traditional Poncha. And as the balmy evenings draw in, be sure to cook some locally caught fish on the barbecue and enjoy dining al fresco as you plan your next adventure on this beautiful Island.

Location & Local Information

Situated in a quiet family friendly neighbourhood, just outside the picturesque fishing town of Camara de Lobos, and a short stroll into the vibrant capital Funchal, you will have a wide range of activities right on your doorstep. Take in the beautiful bay of Camara de Lobos, where colourful fishing boats pull up onto the grey beaches, and amble through the town where you'll find many beautiful historic churches. For those not of the feint-hearted, step out over the 500m drop of the Cabo Girao cliffs on the glass bottomed skywalk and reward yourself with a glass traditional poncho in one of Camara de Lobos' numerous bars.

Just a short walk away, amidst banana plantations and wonderful gardens where flowers bloom all year round in the shelter of the verdant mountains, Funchal is the Island's beautiful capital, relaxed by day and exciting by night. You'll love to amble along Funchal's picturesque seafront promenade enjoying a drink in one of its many beachfront bars. From here take the cable car to Monte, where you can visit the world-renowned Monte Palace Tropical Garden. And to get back to the Old Town from Monte don't miss sliding down the steep hill on a traditional wicker toboggan! Once in the old town, be sure to visit some of the fabulous restaurants serving mouth-watering skewered meats, alongside exquisite tapas and heavenly desserts such as honey cake and passion fruit pudding. Football fans will also enjoy a visit to a museum in honour of Madeira's best loved son Cristiano Ronaldo here.

Just a short walk from the villa you'll find Praia Formosa, a quiet stretch of coastline with three black-sand beaches and a larger pebbled beach. Take a walk along the promenade or relax on the shoreline. There are plenty of cafes with terraces to sit at during the day, and the beach bars make it a popular nightlife spot.

If it's a golden sandy beach you desire, then head to Machico on the south east coast, where the sand has been imported from Morocco and you can enjoy fantastic swimming and sunbathing opportunities. Situated in Santa Cruz, you're also in prime position to take advantage of the beautiful surrounding pine landscapes. And with a stunning backdrop of orange houses nestled in green rolling hills, with the largest mountain on the island Pico Ruivo, inviting you to climb its peaks, you'll love its scenic beauty. Santa Cruz is also home to many wonderful 16th century monuments as well as some delicious fine dining restaurants.

There are a wide range of activities on offer on the Island, but one of the most breath-taking has to be a glorious hike along some of the 2,092 kilometres of narrow stone irrigation channels known as levadas, criss-crossing Madeira's lush mountainous countryside into the Laurisilva forest. One of the most scenic is the Levada do Caldeirao Verde, which meanders four miles past leafy glades and plunging ocean views before emerging into a picturesque clearing sprinkled by a 91-meter waterfall. Just spectacular! And for the adrenaline junkies amongst you, try your hand at the many mountain-bike trails that plunge and ascend this beautiful landscape, or throw yourself into some canyoning, which will have you sliding over cascades and abseiling down waterfalls.

For the more serene, a wine tasting tour is a must. Head to the south coast where many vineyards outside of Funchal will offer a lovely day trying delicious world-renowned Madeiran wine. Or perhaps the black lava bathing pools of Porto Moniz, 53km north, will provide the perfect day trip, where the meeting of Atlantic waves and a prehistoric volcanic eruption has formed spiky rings of black lava rock along the waterfront turning it into one of the world's weirdest and most beautiful swimming baths.

However, you like to spend your holiday, Madeira's year-round climate and stunning natural scenery, from majestic mountains, rugged cliffs, lush forests and delightful flower gardens, will provide you with everything you need to enjoy a wonderful holiday experience.
