

Rosa Dei Venti

Region: Liguria   Sleeps: 14

Overview

Perched at the end of a sandy beach on a rocky piece of land that juts out into the sea, Rosa Dei Venti feels like a true island escape on the Ligurian coast. But with a ferry daytime landing stage below and a seaside promenade right on the doorstep of this unique villa, all the charms and amenities of Levanto town are just a short stroll away.

Make the most of being right on the beach by relaxing on its long, sandy stretch and swimming in the clear waters. Also, take a leisurely walk along the promenade and into town to soak up the laidback, traditional atmosphere and historical sights. There are plenty of medieval buildings and pretty squares to discover in Levanto.

Incredibly light and spacious throughout, Rosa Dei Venti has been tastefully furnished to create a comfortable and effortlessly charming holiday home. Panoramic sea and town views are available in most rooms, with the villa's terraces being the most idyllic spot to enjoy. Inside, on the ground floor, is a large living space with access to an attractive terrace. You'll also find four of the seven bedrooms on this floor, including two en-suite double bedrooms and another two family bathrooms.

On the first floor is another spacious living room, with a dining table and access to a covered terrace. The fully equipped kitchen has every convenient appliance you could need. There are two double bedrooms and two bathrooms on this floor, too. A spiral staircase from one of the bedrooms on the first floor takes you up a tower to the seventh bedroom with an en-suite bathroom.

The numerous terraces dotted around Rosa Dei Venti are ideal for fully appreciating the unspoilt sea views. There's also plenty to do beyond the town of Levanto. Hike along picturesque walking trails or discover the stunning Liguria region by train, with the famous Cinque Terre seaside villages being popular destinations. These five villages are immediately recognisable by the pastel-coloured buildings that huddle on dramatic hillsides and cliff edges. Enjoy the friendly and relaxed atmosphere here in these traditional fishing communities.

Location & Local Information

The closest feature of Levanto to Rosa Dei Venti is its beautiful sandy beach. Step outside the villa and cross the little bridge to the promenade to reach the beach in just a few minutes. Hire sun loungers to simply lie back and listen to the sea lapping at the sand as you fully unwind and relax. Popular watersports here include surfing, diving and snorkelling.

Several beachfront restaurants are just a few minutes walk away, so it's easy to head out for a leisurely lunch or evening meal. Closer to the town centre, which you can reach on foot within 10 minutes, you'll also find many cafés, bars and shops. The town is pretty and full of traditional charm, historical buildings, streets and squares. Most of the oldest buildings are churches, with the 13th-century Church of Sant'Andrea being one of the most beautiful.

Reach Monterossa, the Cinque Terre's first village, by following hiking trails from Levanto, or take it easy with a train journey to some of the villages instead. You can also cycle along scenic paths to nearby villages and towns, such as Bonassola (3.5km) and Framura (14km).

Other towns and cities are also within easy reach of Levanto. Take the family on a day trip to Rapallo (58km) and enjoy a cable car ride up to a hilltop church. You also get to take in some stunning scenery along the way. The town of La Spezia is just under an hour's drive away from the villa. Be sure to visit 13th-century San Giorgio Castle and stroll around the pretty waterfront area.

Those into glamour and shopping will love Portofino (65km) with its boutiques and luxury shops on offer. The port city of Genoa (80km) has an ancient maritime heritage and is even home to a UNESCO World Heritage Site – Via Garibaldi.

What we love

- Fabulous and rare setting at the end of the beach in Levanto, close to all its amenities and town centre.
- Panoramic sea views can be enjoyed in almost every room and from the terraces.
- The light and space throughout the villa, with plenty of room to relax and socialise.
- You can be swimming and relaxing on the sandy beach in mere moments.
- The Cinque Terre seaside villages are within reach by train or car.

What you should know...

- The seventh bedroom is in a tower, accessed via a spiral staircase from one of the first-floor bedrooms.
- The parking space for one car is 30m from the villa, yet a car is not really essential in Levanto.
- The rock that the villa sits on is not a private property, so you may see inquisitive passers-by or daytime ferry passengers.
