

Casa Palleret

Region: Ibiza Sleeps: 10

Overview

Contemporary architecture creates a unique and artistic exterior at Casa Palleret. The frontline villa has a bright white exterior gorgeously decorated with hot pink flowers growing against its walls.

A distinct kidney-shaped swimming pool benefits from Roman steps for easy access – perfect for little ones. A small seating area, sun loungers and dining table for seating up to six are situated poolside where you can enjoy kicking back while admiring views of the surrounding tree-dotted mountains and vivid turquoise sea. Nature lovers will be in awe while staying at this home due to its epic mountaintop location.

The home's gardens are flourishing with lemon and orange trees and other vibrant plants which can be appreciated from the two dining areas – one for four guests and one for six.

Steps that lead down to the glistening blue sea from the pool area are the best feature of the garden. Early morning and late night tranquil swims will be irresistible, but be aware, the steep walk to the sea makes it dangerous for young children.

Inside, the open plan living and dining area is complete with smooth floors and plenty of space to move around and socialise in. A rustic wooden ceiling in the living area provides a homely feel and comfy sofa chairs will be wonderful to sink into as the evening comes in. The dining area benefits from a long wooden table with glass floor length doors on all of one side. Meals with friends & family will be beautifully illuminated by the moon shining in from the windows.

One of the bathrooms features a striking stone wall and an elegant freestanding bathtub, making it feel as if you've entered an exclusive spa. A stone shower room also emphasises luxury.

Guests can kick back in the home's game room which comes with a large pool table, flat screen television and sound system. This room provides a lovely alternative to a night out.
