

Villa Topazio

Region: Tuscany Sleeps: 14

Overview

This beautiful hilltop villa offers sweeping views over lush valleys and ancient olive groves, best enjoyed from the terrace or the private pool. Located on the edge of a charming village, it provides a peaceful retreat while remaining within easy reach of Florence, Lucca, and Pisa.

Inside, the villa blends traditional elegance with comfort. The living room features a piano, inviting sofas, and an open fireplace, creating a cosy atmosphere for evenings with a glass of Tuscan wine. The homely kitchen, equipped with modern appliances, is perfect for preparing delicious local dishes. Seven comfortable bedrooms accommodate up to 14 guests, ensuring space for families or groups.

The villa is surrounded by ten hectares of private olive groves and gardens, offering plenty of space to relax. The large pool is perfect for sunny days, while shaded seating areas provide a cool retreat and a lovely vantage point to admire the terraced gardens.

Within walking distance, you'll find local shops and restaurants serving mouthwatering Tuscan cuisine. The surrounding countryside offers archetypal villages, vineyards, and scenic trails to explore, while the cultural treasures of Florence, Lucca, and Pisa are an easy drive away. Whether relaxing at the villa or venturing further afield, this is the perfect base for discovering the magic of Tuscany.

Location & Local Information

Villa Topazio is perfectly placed in northern Tuscany, surrounded by terraced grounds and reached via a partially unmade road. Just on the edge of a charming village, guests can enjoy walks or short drives to local restaurants serving authentic Tuscan dishes.

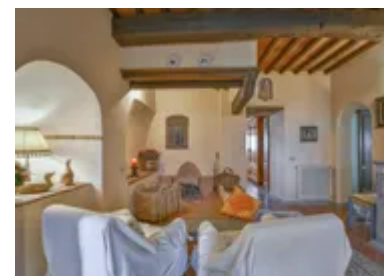

History lovers will enjoy nearby Pistoia, with its striking Cathedral of San Zeno, the striped San Giovanni Fuoricivitas church, and an 11th-century palace. Montecatini Terme offers elegant thermal baths, ideal for relaxing while soaking in the town's historic charm. Florence, just over an hour away, invites visitors to immerse themselves in art, culture, shopping, and fine dining, while enjoying its vibrant nightlife.

Lucca, less than an hour away, enchants with its medieval walls, Lucca Cathedral, and Piazza dell'Anfiteatro. Pisa, home to the famous Leaning Tower, offers more historic wonders alongside excellent food and wine. Closer to home, Tuscany's rolling hills reveal picturesque Chianti villages such as Montespertoli, Certaldo, and San Gimignano, while Siena's magnificent architecture is within 90 minutes.

For a coastal escape, Viareggio's sandy beaches and clear waters are under an hour away, with opportunities for watersports and a lively carnival in spring. This enviable location offers a perfect mix of cultural day trips, scenic countryside, and seaside relaxation.

What we love

- Tucked away on a hilltop that overlooks the valleys, this villa boasts panoramic views which you can enjoy while dining al-fresco.
- Take a dip in the private, fenced in swimming pool that is perfect for cooling yourself down in the warm Italian sun.
- The beautiful terraced grounds include ancient olive groves.
- The villa has all benefits of being situated near a lovely village while three major cities, Lucca, Pisa and Florence, are within a short drive.

What you should know...

- Air conditioning is available in all the bedrooms and the main ground floor living room only.
- One of the double bedrooms is on a mezzanine floor with an open-sided floating staircase.
- The beautiful grounds are terraced in parts and feature many steps.
- Due to its rural location a car is essential to get around and visit the neighbouring towns.
