

Villa Dosta

Region: Omis Sleeps: 6

Overview

In the pretty village of Kučiće, around 13km east of Omiš, Villa Dosta offers poolside accommodation all on one level. This well-appointed holiday home can accommodate up to six guests and sits in attractive Mediterranean gardens enjoying beautiful views of the mountains.

Villa Dosta features lovely outdoor spaces that all the family can enjoy. As well as an 8m x 4m private pool, there's a sun terrace with six loungers and a playground area for the children. You can enjoy memorable meals together with two outdoor dining areas – one under the shade of a vine-covered terrace – and a large, traditional barbecue.

The modern interior is comfortable and welcoming, with a cosy seating area with a fireplace and TV, an indoor dining area and an attractive kitchen with a large fridge freezer, microwave, dishwasher and coffee machine. There's also a PlayStation and Wi-Fi at Villa Dosta, plus DVD and CD players and satellite channels, so you will always be entertained.

With modern furnishings and lots of storage, the two double bedrooms include one with an en suite bathroom, while the other one – and an additional twin bedroom – share the use of a family bathroom. If you fancy a workout, there's even a training machine which enjoys much better views than the gym back home.

You will be just a short walk from the centre of the village, with shops and restaurants around 200m away. Head into Omiš and you will discover a destination that's great for sporting activities, with river rafting, canoeing and zip-lining among them. There are also many sights of historical interest and pirate-themed fun for the children.

Around 30km down the coast from Kučiće, Makarska is a stunning city with excellent dining and nightlife, and the backdrop of mighty Mount Biokovo, while gorgeous beaches like those at Mimice and Baska Voda can be found along the way.

Location & Local Information

A small harbour town on the Dalmatian Coast, Omiš sits at the mouth of the Cetina River. It has a long and rich history, with stories of the town's notorious pirates running amok in the Middle Ages among those you are bound to discover. In the 13th and 14th century, they were the most-feared in the Adriatic and used the river to make a quick getaway after attacking passing trade ships. In summer, Pirate Night tours are a popular attraction, telling tales of the pirates in a more family-friendly way.

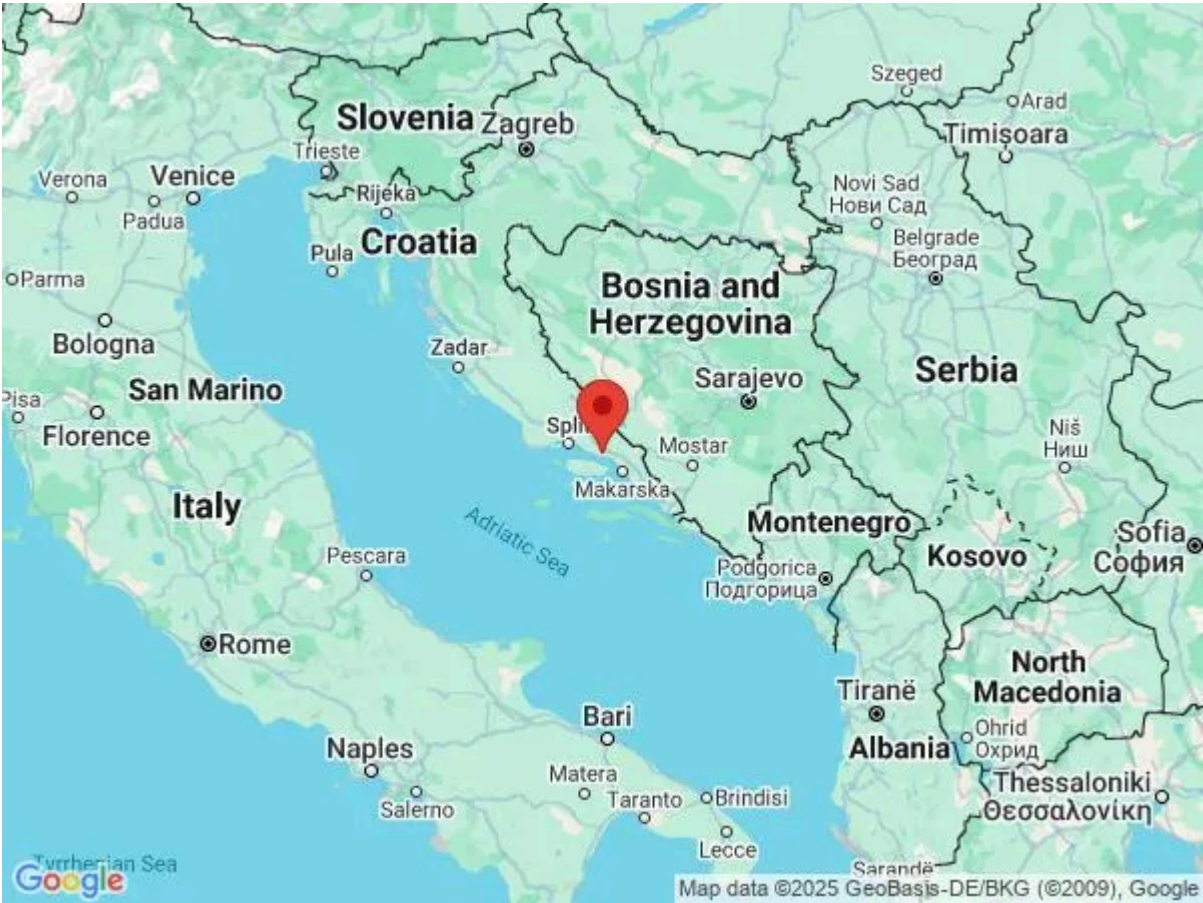

Omiš is a pleasant place to spend your time with lovely beaches and a wealth of great restaurants and cafés. It's visually impressive, with steep cliffs providing a backdrop to the Old Town, where you can find a Franciscan monastery and several old churches, in addition to the Mirabella fortress, dating from the 13th century. At the top of the mountain, there is also the Starigrad fortress – it's quite a climb, but a rewarding one.

Olive groves and vineyards lend their magic to the beautiful areas which surround the town, and the Cetina gives you the opportunity to try out water-sports like rafting, canyoning and canoeing.

Omiš is something of a cultural hub too. The town hosts festivals celebrating music and theatre on a regular basis, with an annual highlight being the Festival of Dalmatian Klapas each summer. Split is also easily accessible from Omiš, around 25km away, so it's easy to take a bus or mini-van to see the Diocletian Palace, the Cathedral of St Domnius or the town's strangely unmissable frog museum.
