Overview

You will be able to spot the chic Moroccan design as soon as you come close to Villa Bicaro. Outside, deep coral decorates part of the exterior and arched roofs provide shelter for the sunny veranda. Inside, rich colours are clashed perfectly to create a chic and stylish interior.

The living area is creatively designed and fuses bold colours and prints with modern artworks. This makes for an ideal social space where you can unwind with friends or seek relaxation on those rare cooler days. Guests will be sure to make use of the Plasma television with international channels and the comfy l-shaped sofa. The elegant indoor dining area is also a celebration of modern art. From the striking wall art to the colourful furnishings and the black and white tiled flooring, this room is full of quirky artistic flair.

Outside, you will have the privilege of enjoying numerous spaces to lounge in. Poolside sun loungers come complete with large umbrellas to shade you from the hot sun and a cosy lounge sits on the veranda overlooking the striking scenery. Guests will also have various spots to choose from when it comes to dining al fresco. One of them will be a tasteful dining area for six that lies adjacent to the pool and benefits from having a shelter. Beside this dining area, you will discover an indoor bar, ideal for sampling some of the island's most popular beverages.

The home's garden is flourishing with life. Palm trees and flowering bushes are dotted across the lush lawns and terraces and trees gracefully grow up the villa's exterior. However, the highlight of this villa is the proximity to the sea and the direct access that guest's can use to reach a small cove below the property!
