Overview

Villa Blue is a delightful home, offering quintessential Plantation style architecture along with impeccably styled interiors - a luminescent and vibrant home finessed with flawless comfort levels.

With almost two acres of landscaped gardens, guests have ultimate seclusion, whilst being moments from the iconic Sandy Lane hotel. The pool side is punctuated with elegant loungers and a pretty pergola, whilst the al fresco dining area is the ultimate chic spot for a leisurely lunch or refreshing post swim breakfast; decked out with characteristic wicker, and pastel aqua tones, indoor and outdoor living interplay seamlessly.

The main house comprises four double bedrooms, each with a state-of-the-art en-suite, whilst the self-contained cottage has a two further bedrooms, making this home ideal for families travelling together, couples wanting privacy or families with grandparents or au pair. The interiors of Villa Blue are a delightful blend of vivacious, breezy and upbeat style, against timeless proportions and contemporary verve. All the modern touches are in place: Apple television, Bose bluetooth speaker, air conditioning and security system, whilst Villa Blue has the feel of a genuine home. The kitchen is a sleek, contemporary affair of top range fittings, chic minimalism and stunning natural walnut timbers. At every turn, local island raw materials are in evidence: wicker, mahogany, marble and coral, offering an authentic tone to this sumptuous dwelling.

Villa Blue strikes the balance between luxury and low-key; it has an optimistic aura, the accents of turquoise, timeless style and design quirks add personal verve. Brimming with character, the open-plan living space features a wonderful cobalt blue theme, a funky starburst mirror and solid mahogany table with gorgeous upholstered chairs

Location & Local Information

The villa faces west and overlooks the eighth hole of the famous Sandy Lane golf course. With access to tennis courts and gym facilities, Villa Blue is opposite the The Sandy Lane Hotel and has access to the Sandy Lane Property Owner's Beach Facility.

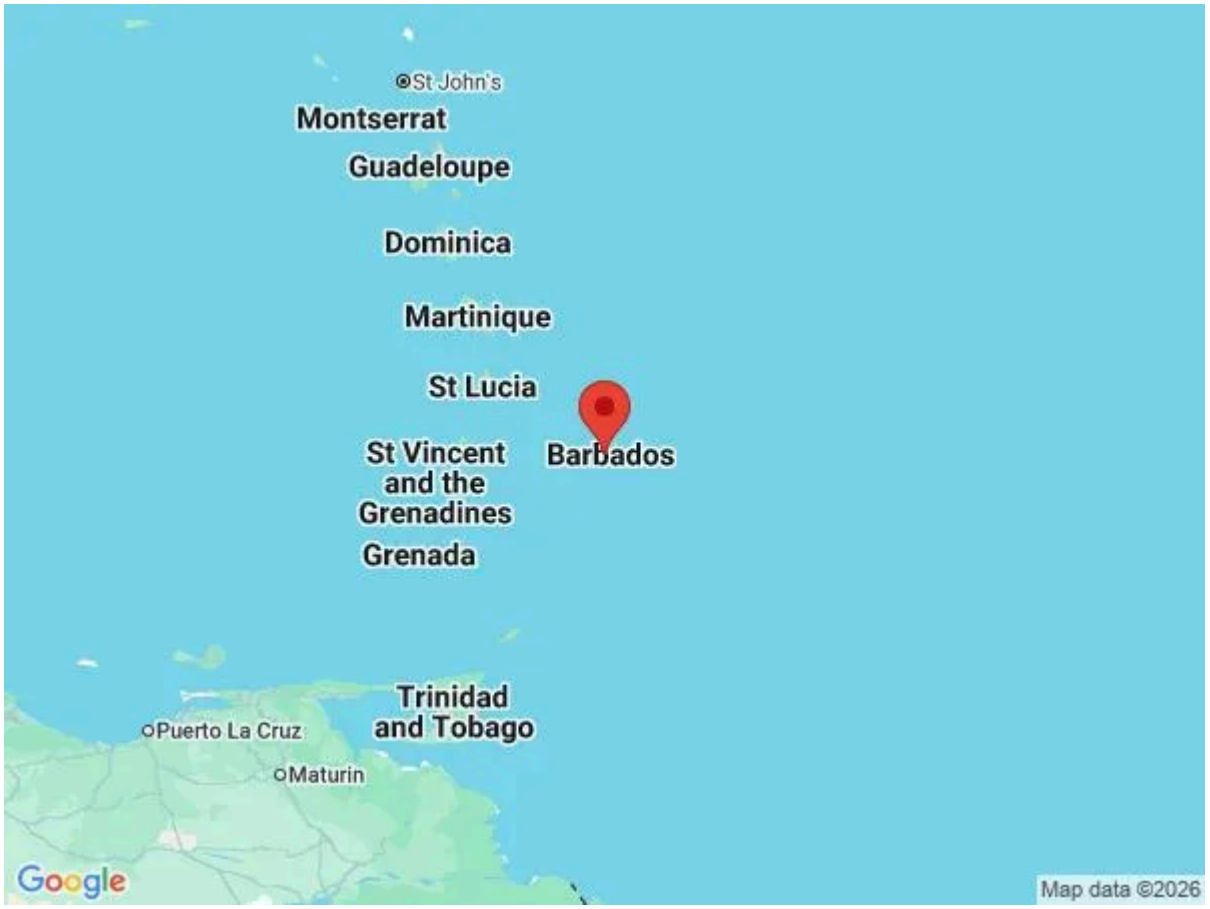

This stretch of the West Coast of Barbados is known as the "platinum coast" for its pristine beaches and turquoise waters. Despite this region being developed with high-end hotels and stately private residences to an international jet-set, its coast remains one of the most beautiful Barbados has to offer. With the recent development of extensive boardwalks, visitors can enjoy spectacular sunset strolls with the glittering sea as their companion.

The Sandy Lane Hotel, nearby, is an iconic spot drawing a star-studded clientele. The area is ideal for swimming, and snorkelling, tropical sea life and sea turtles can be spotted, whilst opportunities for kayaking and paddle boarding are abundant.

Villa Blue is ideally positioned, offering both tranquil seclusion as well as being within walking distance to the prestigious Sandy Lane Golf Course and the Limegrove Lifestyle Centre which comprises upscale boutiques, spas and fine dining.

Within close proximity to Villa Blue, visitors can enjoy the fine culinary art at Tides Restaurant for something a little special, or Zaccios for informal pizza lunches with the kids. The west coast offers everything from rum cocktails at the bar to Thai cuisine or local Bajan fare. A culinary experience here takes influences from African, Caribbean, West Indian and European gastronomy for something a little unique. Known for its rum tradition, started circa 370 years ago, the island is brimming with tours of the world's oldest rum.

Holetown, a few kilometres further south, is brimming with local flavour and Bajan traditions, as well as duty free shopping and local commerce in the Chattel town.
