

Villa Ares

Region: Makarska Sleeps: 10

Overview

Perched at the foot of Mount Biokovo in the coastal town of Makarska, Villa Ares offers striking sea views and a tranquil setting just moments from local shops, bars, and restaurants. Accommodating up to ten guests across four en-suite bedrooms, this modern retreat is ideal for families or groups seeking a refined escape along Croatia's Dalmatian coast.

The villa's interior is both spacious and stylish, with each bedroom featuring contemporary en-suite facilities and panoramic views. An open-plan kitchen with high-spec appliances flows into a bright living area, leading directly to the poolside terrace. Outside, guests can unwind in the infinity pool or jacuzzi, enjoy sunset dinners in the al fresco dining area, or relax in the sauna after a workout in the fitness room.

From morning coffees overlooking the sea to evenings beneath the mountain backdrop, Villa Ares combines sleek design with comfort and privacy, offering a serene base to experience the beauty of southern Dalmatia.

Location & Local Information

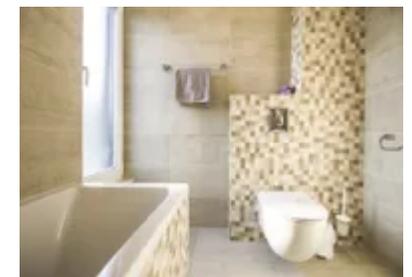

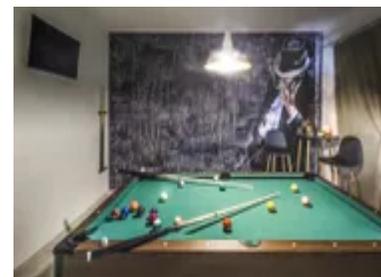

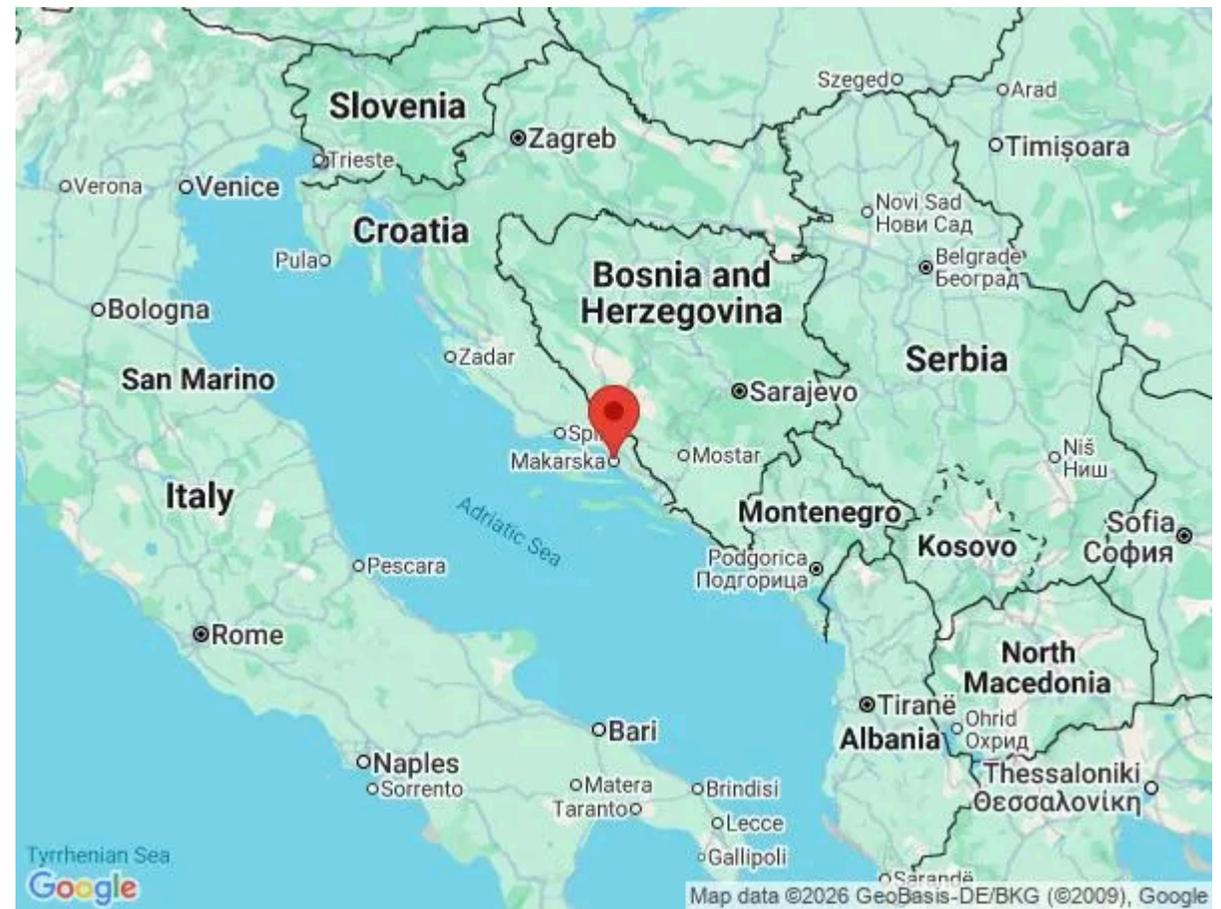

Set in the charming port town of Makarska, around an hour from historic Split, Villa Ares offers a peaceful escape with easy access to Croatia's vibrant coastline. Framed by the Adriatic Sea and the dramatic slopes of Mount Biokovo, this picturesque destination combines natural beauty with cultural appeal.

Makarska is known for its pristine beaches, both sandy and pebbled, many tucked into quiet coves perfect for swimming and snorkelling. For those seeking adventure, the town also offers water sports such as jet skiing, pedal boats, and banana rides. Along the harbour, lined with cafés and pizzerias, wooden boats depart for day trips to Hvar's Jelsa and Brac's famous Zlatni Rat beach.

The town itself is rich in local charm, with open-air restaurants, family-run cafés, daily markets, and boutique shops. Whether enjoying relaxed coastal days or sampling authentic Dalmatian cuisine, guests at Villa Ares are perfectly placed to experience the best of southern Croatia.
