

Villa Kallista

Region: Mlini Sleeps: 12

Overview

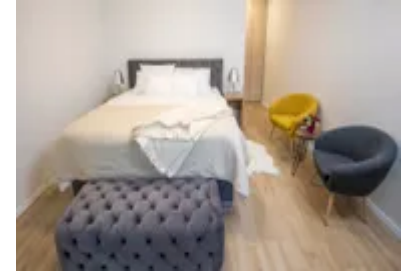

Villa Kallista is a stylish, contemporary retreat in Dubrovnik, set against a striking mountainous backdrop and just over a kilometre from the Adriatic Sea. Surrounded by trees and tranquil scenery, it offers serene views and easy access to the UNESCO-listed Old Town, where centuries of heritage await exploration.

Designed for comfort and sociable living, the villa sleeps up to twelve guests across five generously sized bedrooms and five bathrooms, making it ideal for two families or groups of friends. The interior blends rich tones, polished marble floors and plush furnishings with vivid modern artwork, creating a space that's both elegant and characterful. A chic living area with an eye-catching glass fireplace and large glass doors opens onto a spacious veranda, while casual dining areas enhance the welcoming atmosphere.

Outdoors, a mosaic-tiled pool with Roman steps is framed by contemporary loungers and sleek daybeds perfect for basking in the sunshine. A covered dining terrace for eight and a built-in barbecue offer the perfect setting for relaxed al fresco meals under the stars.

Location & Local Information

Just a twenty-minute drive from the villa, the iconic Walls of Dubrovnik offer an unforgettable glimpse into the city's storied past. Encircling the UNESCO-listed Old Town, these formidable stone defences stretch for nearly two kilometres and are punctuated by six impressive fortresses.

A walk along the ramparts rewards visitors with panoramic views over the terracotta rooftops and shimmering Adriatic Sea. Early arrival is recommended to avoid the crowds and midday heat, especially during summer. Guided tours are available, providing rich historical insight and fascinating local stories. Fans of Game of Thrones may also recognise several filming locations along the route.
