This two-storey villa is bright thanks to its use of large windows that let the natural light flood through the property, allowing the space to feel even more open and grand.

The property uses white walls to bounce the natural light throughout, and the owners use the furniture and décor to add pops of colour inside the villa, brightening the rooms. The living space uses bright and comfortable furniture to make this space a location to be relaxed in with your guests and an ideal spot to enjoy a drink. The kitchen uses sleek white cabinets to enhance a modern and luxurious feeling and is equipped with all the necessary appliances leaving nothing left to be desired. There are three double bedrooms in the property, two on the first floor and a twin room on the ground floor. On the first floor, the two bedrooms have double beds and are equipped with an en-suite shower room and toilet. The room on the ground floor can either be used as two single beds or one double bed if required. Additionally, there is a double sofa bed, for small children, in the lounge and there is a separate shower room with a toilet for the ground floor bedrooms to share. The property can only sleep 6 adults not 8 adults.

This spectacular villa has a large exterior with a fantastic large swimming pool, which is perfect for families and group vacations as it offers you a luxurious and relaxing space. The private swimming pool has roman steps to enter it, as well as ladders to enter and exit the pool.
