Region: Indonesia Sleeps: 10

Overview

An old-time colonial house made entirely of driftwood, this villa evokes a sense of romance through its elegant interiors and irresistible atmosphere. Wooden walkways weave through three floors, detailed with have carvings and leaf features. Floor to ceiling windows with pool and garden views open out to let a tropical breeze flow around the property.

Five bedrooms - two identical master bedrooms and three guest rooms - are decorated in shades of coffee and cream. Understated yet classy, the bedrooms all have four-poster king size beds dressed in fine linen and delicate canopies. The luxurious ensuite bathrooms are decorated in muted grey and feature a rain shower and freestanding stone tub. Ornate wood accessories and patterned heritage textiles finish off the rooms beautifully.

A truly special feature of this villa is the intricate temple in the midst of the garden, complete with a spiritual statue. Great for a quiet moment of peace or some meditation, the temple is surrounded by a serene pond and adds a signature Balinese touch to the villa. A wooden terrace borders a refreshing private pool, complete with sundeck and a manicured lawn. Take a cooling swim in the jade green water, then relax with a good book and soak up the sun.

Inside, the airy living room blends fresh cream sofas and fluttering curtains with a motif of sea green, wooden details and a stunning, sleek marble counter. It's a great space to socialise and play games together - there's a flat screen television for everyone to gather and watch a movie together.

If you're in the mood for an invigorating Balinese massage, skilled therapists can come to the villa and provide a comprehensive range of spa therapies. Villa Indrani prides itself on its professional and amiable staff - there is a team of butlers to take care of all your needs and the highly trained private chef can whip up a delicious Indonesian or Western feast on request.

Location & Local Information

Perfectly placed within walking distance to Berawa and Canggu, the villa is close to an unspoilt part of picturesque Berawa beach, dotted with fishing huts and colourful outriggers awaiting night fishing. Nearby is the largest natural lagoon in Canggu - cross the rickety wooden bridge to reach the gorgeous crystalline waters.

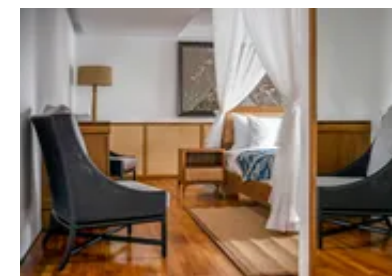

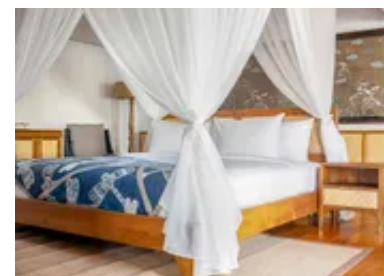

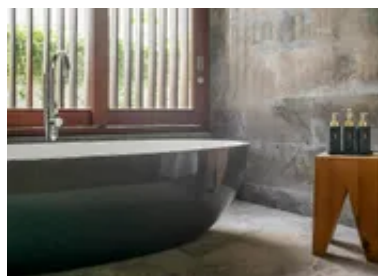

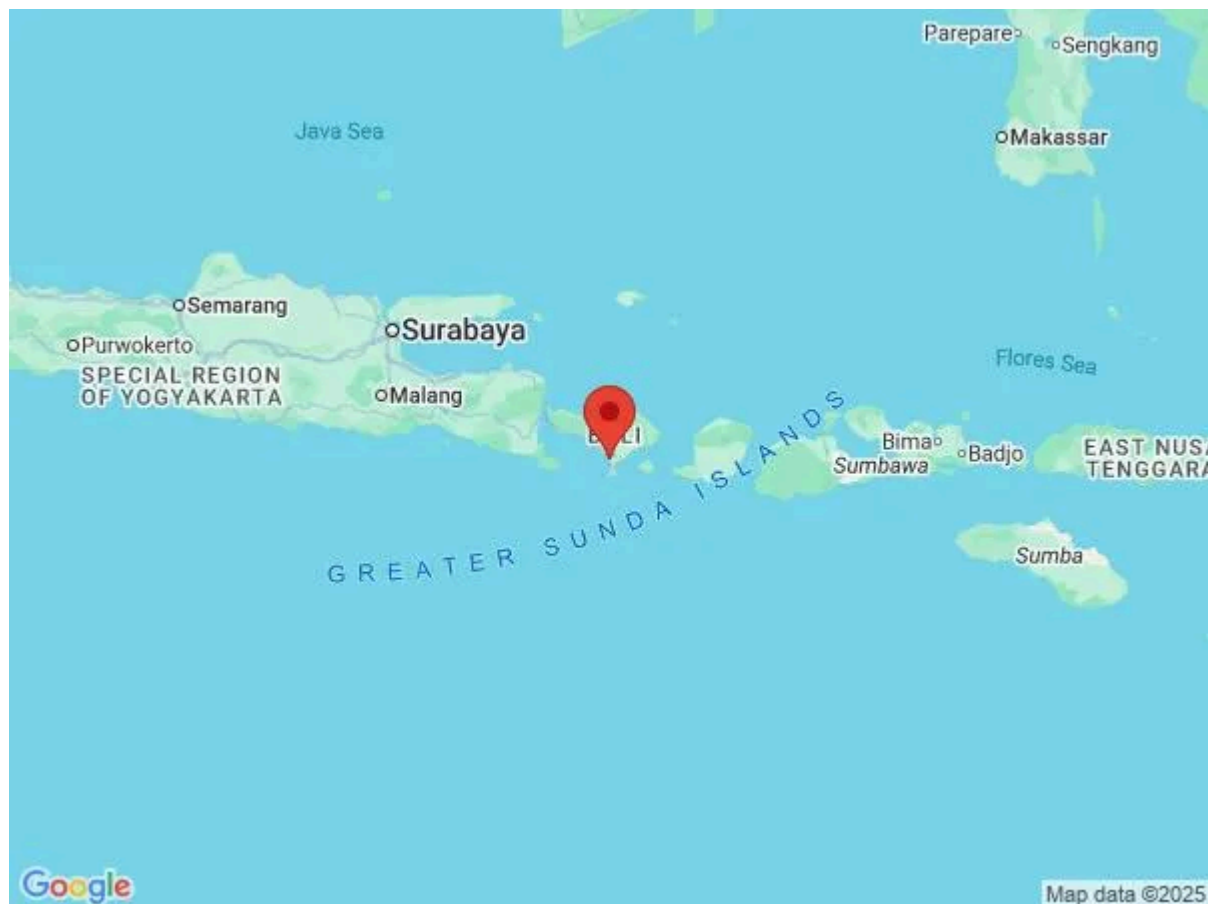

Berawa beach has an irresistible laid back atmosphere - it's great for those who love surfing as there are some challenging breaks along with the long beach break. With striking black volcanic sand and panoramic views of the Indian ocean, Berawa is particularly lovely at sunset. Locals and tourists gather at the beach clubs to watch the sky light on fire from the comfort of a bean bag.

One of the best local attractions is Finn's Recreation Club. Boasting a water park with thrilling slides popular with kids and adults alike, a state of the art gym, blissful spa, vast tennis court and boxing arena, there's something for everyone here. Finn's also has a beautiful beach club in a gorgeous bamboo building on Berawa Beach. Whatever you choose to do there, it's bound to be a memorable day out for the whole family!

Canggu is surrounded by evergreen rice paddies that stretch as far as the eye can see. A great way to experience the lush landscape is by bicycle - take a trip down the Shortcut, which is a beautiful path through the plantations. Just be careful when you move to the side to let others pass, or you might end up in the locals' book of falls!

The villa is just a few kilometres north of Seminyak, Bali's premiere upscale beach resort. A playground for jet-setters, fashionistas and yogis, it's full of fashionable boutiques where you can shop til you drop. Seminyak has an excellent nightlife, atmospheric cocktail huts and superb sundowners at beach clubs.

You'll be spoilt for choice when you stop for a snack in Canggu or Seminyak. Pick up some local treats from a warung, or take your pick of the wildly popular array of quirky cafes. Healthy smoothie bowls are available in abundance, as are world-class menus of international fare.

Bali is known as the 'Island of the Gods' and is home to countless enchanting temples. Magical Pura Petitenget embodies Balinese spirituality and is a significant link in the series of temples along Bali's west coast between Pura Uluwatu and Pura Tanah Lot. The temple has twelve shrines and an impressive dragon staircase that leads to an expansive courtyard. Every evening, there are temple ceremonies on the beach and traditional dance displays.

Bali Equestrian Centre is a must for horse lovers, whether you're a keen rider or want a taster riding lesson. If you've ever dreamed of cantering across powdery sand at sunset or visiting local villages fringed with evergreen rice terraces, this world-class centre has got you covered.
