

Villa Cenate

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 16

Overview

Villa Cenate is a charming southern Italian retreat in Melissano, Puglia, offering privacy and comfort within lush, gated grounds. Surrounded by verdant foliage and palm trees, this welcoming villa provides a tranquil escape.

The highlight of the property is its lagoon-shaped pool, complemented by a spacious patio with loungers and parasols—perfect for relaxed afternoons or evening aperitivos. Immaculately maintained lawns provide ample space for recreation, while a shaded dining veranda invites lively group meals.

Inside, the villa blends rustic charm with home-like comfort. The open-plan living and dining area, framed by French windows, fosters a seamless indoor-outdoor flow. Traditional furnishings, exposed stone walls, and warm hues add character, while a well-equipped kitchen makes self-catering effortless.

Four double bedrooms, each thoughtfully styled with quality linens and soothing tones, offer a restful retreat for up to 16 guests.

Just a short drive away, the local town boasts excellent restaurants serving traditional cuisine, along with renowned regional wines. The stunning beaches of Torre Suda's rocky coves and Baia Verde's golden sands are easily accessible, while nearby towns like Gallipoli, Specchia, and Lecce offer rich history and charm.

Villa Cenate embodies laid-back southern Italian living, providing a serene space to unwind, connect, and explore the spectacular surroundings.

Location & Local Information

Villa Cenate is perfectly positioned just outside Melissano, offering excellent road connections to Gallipoli in the north and Santa Maria di Leuca in the south.

Melissano (1.5km) is a charming town in southern Salento, known for its Byzantine-era historical center and renowned Puglian wines. It boasts excellent restaurants serving traditional cuisine in a picturesque old quarter. Nearby Taviano (4km) is famous for its olive groves, vineyards, and flower production, with a rich history and popular local dining spots.

The villa is just 8km from the Ionian coast. Torre Suda offers crystal-clear waters and a rocky shoreline, ideal for snorkelling and swimming. Further north, Baia Verde's sandy beaches feature shallow waters perfect for families, as well as a vibrant nightlife scene. To the south, Marina di Pescoluse is often compared to the Maldives, with white sands and turquoise waters.

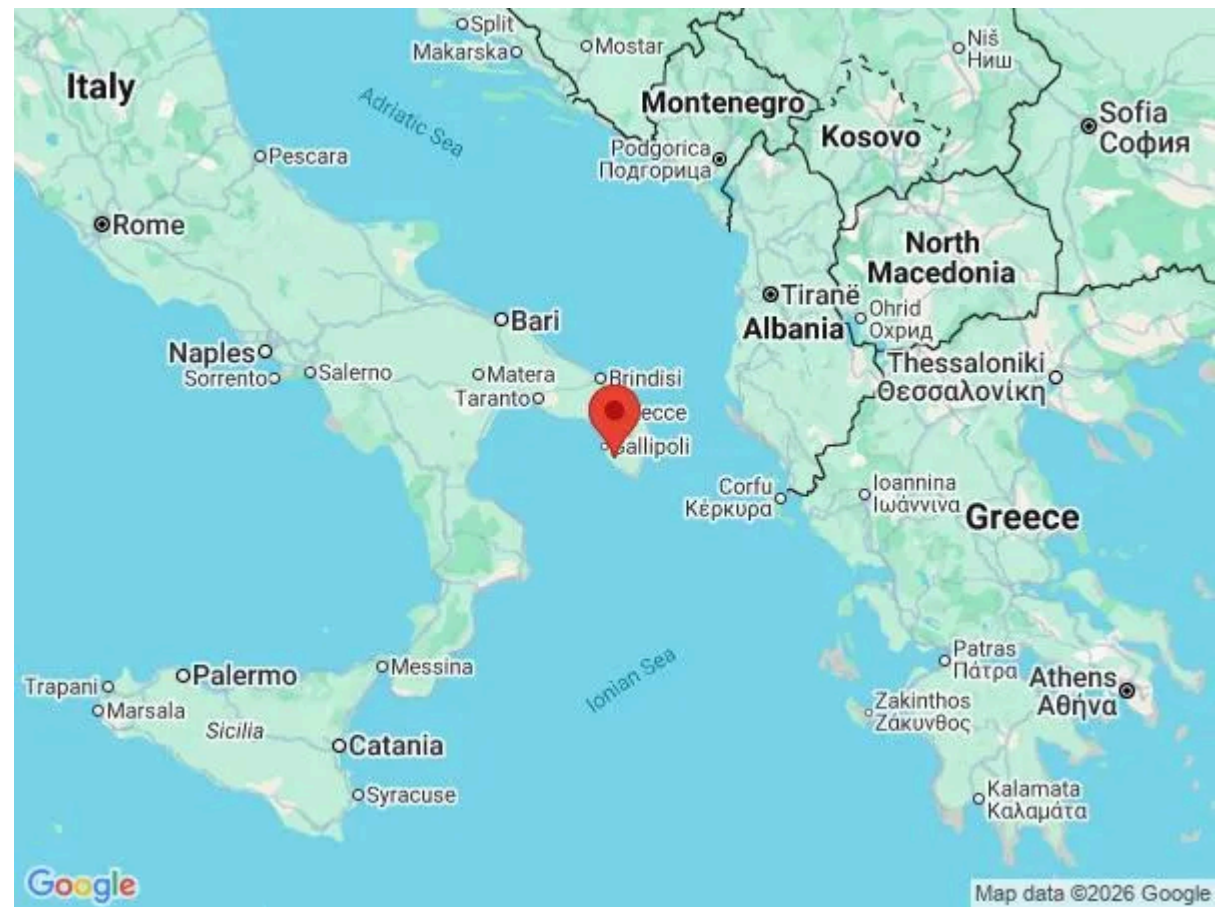

Across Salento, visitors can discover a mix of rocky coves and long sandy stretches, many with beach clubs offering sunbeds, parasols, and waterfront dining.

Gallipoli (17km) is a must-visit, with its historic sites, bustling market, and fantastic seafood restaurants. Lecce (55km) offers impressive baroque architecture, excellent shopping, and fascinating ruins. Other charming destinations include Specchia (22km), considered one of Italy's prettiest towns, as well as the historic streets of Muro Leccese and Maglie, both around 30 minutes away.

Villa Cenate's prime location provides the perfect balance of coastal relaxation, cultural exploration, and vibrant local experiences.
