Overview

Tenuta Corsari is a grand 19th-century villa, once owned by a local aristocratic family, now beautifully restored to preserve its original splendor while offering modern comforts. Set at the end of a sweeping gravel drive, the villa's Italianate baroque façade is complemented by a tree-lined avenue and elegant wrought-iron gates.

Surrounded by Mediterranean scrub and pine, the villa provides a tranquil escape with a chic pool area shaded by trees and a serene patio with loungers and day-beds. The upper balcony offers stunning views of the open countryside and the Ionian shoreline, perfect for unwinding with a book or a glass of wine.

The villa accommodates up to ten guests in five bedrooms and eight bathrooms. The interiors are a blend of original charm and contemporary luxury, featuring art-piece lighting, black-and-white photography, and sumptuous furnishings. High ceilings, marble floors, and antique banquettes create an elegant, welcoming atmosphere.

The bedrooms, with en-suite marble bathrooms and wrought-iron beds, offer peaceful retreats, while the views from the upper floor bedrooms extend to the Ionian Sea. The nearby beaches are just a five-minute drive away.

Located just 7 km from the historic town of Nardò, with its shops, bars, and restaurants, and within easy reach of other towns like Gallipoli, Lecce, Otranto, and Leuca, Tenuta Corsari offers an elegant and tranquil escape in one of Puglia's most beautiful regions.

Location & Local Information

Tenuta Corsari is located just outside Nardò, a historic town on the Ionian coast of Salento, with local amenities and the beach just a short drive away (2 km). Nardò, rich in Baroque history, offers beautiful streets, alleys, and stunning historic buildings, largely untouched by tourists. Nearby, Punta della Suina and Baia Verde are popular beaches, while the natural reserve of Porto Selvaggio and Torre Colimena, known for its flamingos, are also close by.

Salento, the southernmost part of Italy's "heel," is bordered by the Adriatic to the east and the Ionian to the west. Known for its Greek influences and colorful dialects, Salento is home to some of Italy's most charming towns, such as Gallipoli, Otranto, Lecce, and Leuca.

With both rocky coastlines and long stretches of golden beaches, Salento is a paradise for sea lovers. From Leuca to Gallipoli, the coastline is lined with golden sands and azure waters. The Adriatic coast offers a more varied landscape, with sandy beaches, caves, cliffs, and saltwater lagoons. The region is also famous for its olive oil production, surrounded by olive groves and white-washed hill towns.

What we love

- Opulent yet timeless Baroque architecture of 19th-century Italianate grandeur, meticulously restored.
- Vast private parkland with enchanting woodlands, sweeping views, serene tranquility, and close proximity to the beach.
- Each bedroom features a luxurious marble-finished en-suite bathroom, air conditioning, and central heating; two of the five first-floor rooms also include private balconies.

What you should know...

- Situated in a serene location, perfect for those seeking peace and relaxation rather than a bustling downtown experience
- A car is recommended to take full advantage of this beautiful region (there is ample private parking space)
- The pool is not fenced, so children should be supervised when outdoors.
