Location & Local Information

Galicia itself is a hidden gem and still remains largely off the typical tourist trail, making it an ideal destination for an authentic Spanish retreat. Villa Arousa is located in a quiet village in A Aldea Da Bouza, otherwise known as the Arousa estuary, where guests can walk to local restaurants and wineries or venture further afield to Pontevedra, just a thirty-minute drive away. Santiago de Compostela is under an hour's drive and offers a fantastic array of things to do and see. The closest airport is in Vigo but only offers domestic flights, so guests from the UK might be better off travelling to the slightly further airport in Santiago de Compostela, which has direct connections via Easyjet, Ryanair, and Vueling from the UK.

A Aldea Da Bouza is just one of its many little villages set amongst vineyards and woods and is known as where some of Spain's best white wines are produced within the Rías Baixas region, meaning wine tours are plentiful here! It is a very peaceful spot, and the nearest restaurant is only a 15-minute walk away. The church, originally Romanesque, is definitely worth a look. The delightful old town and port of Cambados, the capital of the Albariño area, is roughly seven kilometres away. With a covered market, it should provide all you need in the way of shopping. The fish market at the busy resort of Sanxenxo is also highly recommended.

The city of Pontevedra is a mix of old and new, with several museums and historical sites to visit. Enjoy the restaurants and tapas bars located in the old and newer parts of the city, where traditional and delicious cuisine can be found. Pontevedra has been awarded many international prizes for its urban development. The paved streets have been mostly pedestrianised, and the buildings of the historic centre are not only beautiful but full of life every day of the year.

Santiago de Compostela has been declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO and is considered one of the most beautiful urban areas in the world. There are many reasons to visit this city: history, nature, leisure, and gastronomy are some of the things that tourists can enjoy. Visit the famous cathedral and get lost in the narrow streets and squares that make up its historic quarter with centuries of history and majestic buildings, many of them from medieval times.

Santiago's food market is a fascinating, always lively scene, very clean, with masses of fresh produce from the seas and countryside attractively displayed at 300-odd stalls. Stock up on Tetilla cheese, cured meats, sausage, fruit, empanada (pastry pie) or the tasty takeaway dishes of Cocina María for a picnic. Numerous bars and cafes line the street outside, and there are several more within the market itself, including a wine bar in the central alley.
