Baiona old town is a lovely place for a stroll with its narrow-cobbled streets and traditional Galician terraced houses. There are a few places of interest that are worth visiting, Monterreal Castle located on the edge of town offers stunning views of Baiona and its surrounding coast. Carabela Pinta museum gives you a chance to climb aboard a replica of one of Christopher Columbus' fleet, the arrival of La Pinta caravel in 1493 at Baiona port made it the first port in Europe to receive the news of the discovery of America. Virxe da Rocha is a 15-metre-high granite monument of the Virgin Mary, this impressive statue is located on the coast through a scenic park, make sure you climb up the narrow staircase onto the stone boat for the best views! From Baiona there are plenty of boat tours to choose from including trips to the popular Cies Islands, within 45 minutes you can reach the stunning sandy beaches with clear water, it is like a small paradise perfect for a scenic stroll or to lay back and relax.
