Location & Local Information

Smolonje is only 12km from the sea and beach. The mini-market is 2km away. You can order the traditional dish 'peka' in the local tavern only 1km away. Delicious – you should try it!

You can totally relax in this awe-inspiring location but very quickly (approximately 15 minutes) get to the small Mediterranean town Omis which offers many historical attractions and restaurants. In the 13th and 14th century Omis was the home of pirates! They would attack trade ships at the mouth of the river and return up the Cetina river where they could not be followed. The Cetina river, with its amazing canyon and zip-line, rafting and canoeing are incredible for those seeking an adrenaline rush! One of the highlights of the Omis summer festival is the Klapa festival (a capella singing) in the churches and squares of the old town if you happen to be there. The sandy beach is idyllic.

The most popular tourist attractions on the Dalmatian coast are only half an hour away from such as Split with its a great history, Makarska Riviera or Trogir (45 minutes away). It is approximately 1hr 30m from the stunning Krka waterfalls and Skradin. Trips can be taken to Brac from Makarska or Split. Makarska is popular for its nature park, nightlife, harbour and beach and shopping and lunch in Kacic Square. Why not take a walking tour with wine tasting and a local 'peka' meal in Split?

You will tour through the historical centre and see sights such as the Golden Gate, Diocletian's Palace built for the Roman emperor in 305 CE, the Jewish Ghetto and much more. Trogir's preserved old town, known for its a mix of Renaissance, Baroque and Romanesque buildings, lies on a small island connected to the mainland and the island of Ciovo by bridges. The serious adventurers can even rock climb around historical sites dating back to the 15th century with professional and licenced guides at Marjan Park 40 minutes away. The not so adventurous can enjoy the forests and trails!

You can always speak to our Concierge team for further information about trips available in the area.

The nearest airport is SPU, Split's airport, which is 35km away. It is an easy drive to the villa where there is space for three cars.
