

Villa Napha

Region: Phuket Sleeps: 3

Overview

Villa Napha offers sumptuous guest settings alongside massive amounts of space to refresh, relax and have fun in! Amidst the privacy of tropical trees, this deluxe one-bedroom villa sits splendidly against the shores, providing breathtaking vistas of Cape Panwa and the Andaman Sea!

Including elevated views, the villa has been finished with a chic and contemporary design, featuring fancy touches such as lighting under the bed and stylish furnishings as well as hints of the native culture, in patterns and features!

Step into the plush open-plan villa and immerse yourself in the bedroom and lounge area! Gloriously designed and completed with neutral and natural colours; the soft lighting completes the relaxing ambience that is apparent in this elegant room.

Snooze or relax on the comfy king-size bed, complete with plush and immaculate beddings and linen. Or relax in the living area and snuggle up on the plush sofa with a loved one or friend and enjoy movies and shows on satellite television! Switch the television off to really spend together time and open the balcony, with your choice to sit indoors or outside and enjoy refreshing drinks as you gaze across the tranquil sea!

The sheer size of the bathroom means guests will take a moment, as they admire the sublime finish throughout. Twin basins and sink areas sit alongside a shower and beautiful toilet in this room. The centrepiece of the bathroom is the flawless bathtub! Both delightfully shaped and deep, the bathtub makes for an excellent spot to soak with some bubbly! For times you need to excuse yourself, but you don't want to leave the comfort of the bedroom and lounge area, a toilet sits near the entrance!

Alongside the balcony in the living area, Villa Napha also offers two additional exterior areas and a pool! This stunning infinity pool sits on the edge of the lofty villa allowing guests to feel as if they are at the peak of a waterfall in the jungle! Splash, swim and escape the heat of the Thai climate as you breathe in the sights and smells at your disposal!

A charming and tender dining area sits outside the pool on the patio and guests can complement the ever-present panoramas with a delicious alfresco meal! The villa offers a larger patio area, adjacent to the pool, with sun-loungers allowing you to recline and relax!

Location & Local Information

Thailand is an excellent place to spend any amount of time, accommodating nearly every activity and function you could possibly imagine! The South Asian country grants a multitude of settings for both peace, tranquillity, vibrancy, dining and drinking and enjoying the natural beauty that surrounds visitors!

Villa Napha is situated in the Amatara Wellness Resort, tucked away in the quiet Cape Panwa, on the scenic and the active island of Phuket! The resort itself offers a range of amenities and services, so put your feet up and order in-villa treats, meals and items! You can hire kayaks and paddle-boards to be the master of your own voyage on the seas or get active in the sports facilities, including tennis courts and a gym!

For more indulgent experiences, visit the Amatara's resort spa. With the upliftment of mind, body and spirit as the aim in all of its heavenly treatments and therapies, guests can rejuvenate in splendour, with views of lush forests, deep blue seas and towering mountains!

After your revitalisation, guests have a multitude of options for dining! Three restaurants sit on the resort serving traditional and world-renowned Thai cuisine, as well as a grill restaurant and for those who wish to truly continue the wellness that is the staple of the resort, a restaurant offering healthier and reinvigorating food! For lighter snacks, terraced eateries offer snacks and light options in both the resort pool and the beach.

For drink options and for a lovely vibe and some refreshments, head to The Library, an informal yet first-class bar within the resort or to accompany your cocktails with marvellous views, visit the roof terrace bar, The Sun and Moon! The villa takes it even further and for those who want to amaze friends but also make them slightly jealous and impressed, book a session in the Thai Cooking Class and learn a life skill you can boast about!

Beaches dot the entire island, and you can choose from a multitude to match the mood. Head to Panwa Beach, an undiscovered gem of a shore, with sugary white sand and warm, crystal-clear blue seas. The beach remains a secret and special spot, with hardly any visitors and offering blissful and beautiful settings to allow you to escape truly. No beach beats Patong Beach, however in terms of vibrancy!

Situated just thirty minutes from the villa, guests can have a whale of a time on water-sports activities, both motorised and non-motorised or head to the many restaurants and bars that line the beaches shores! The beach offers the same picturesque scenery found in other beaches around Phuket and the nightlife here is extraordinary and is a must for couples who want a wonderful end to the evening!
