

Villa Fistik

Region: Turkey Sleeps: 4

Overview

Charming and modern, Villa Fistik is perfect for small families and small groups who wish to have an exclusive and relaxed experience of Turkey. Situated in a humble village, the villa features a range of amenities and facilities for your holiday needs and is situated amongst picturesque scenery!

Truly modern, Villa Fistik incorporates traditional, non-complicated stone and wood architecture to present a contemporary and cleanly finished home away from home! The use of wooden roofs and elements brings a rustic charm to the villa whilst stone marbling presents a sleek touch and provides soothingly cool flooring for feet!

Adopting an open plan throughout the ground floor, Villa Fistik offers your dining and lounging options in the kitchen and living area. The living area makes for a perfect place to cosy up to after days of fun throughout your stay in Turkey, with plump sofas for sprawling on whilst watching the satellite television and is by doors which lead to the patio!

A dining table, complete with delightful seats and table and a modern kitchen sits behind the living area. Should you choose to prepare meals during your stay you will be pleased to know the kitchen has all the modern functionality you can expect in any home kitchen, as well as ample amounts of space to prepare food so get as busy cooking as you wish!

The villa offers two large and lush bedrooms, situated with access to the patio meaning you can step out to enjoy your morning coffee at the start of every day! The master bedroom offers a large double bed and guests can sit back with a glass of bubbly in the jacuzzi within the room to truly live lavishly whilst away! The second bedroom contains, two single beds, which allow more options towards sleeping arrangements. Both bedrooms offer en-suite bathroom facilities to make it easy and convenient to get refreshed whenever you need to!

Doors from the master bedroom open up to the patio and glorious outdoor private infinity pool! Splash, swim or take a soak when you need to get away from the heat or simply whenever you feel like it as the exterior is illuminated at night! To dry up afterwards or to just rest in the beautiful climate and dazzling Turkish sun, recliners have been laid out by the pool area!

A children's play area sits on the lawn and a comfortable seating area, complete with a sofa, are accessible from the second bedroom. The living area opens up to the outdoor dining area, perfect for Alfresco dining!

Location & Local Information

The southwest region of Turkey is famed for its mountainous landscapes, magnificent beaches and Rivera, so make sure you have your camera with you as you will be surrounded by miles and miles of lush views! World-famous cuisine, activities for all types of adults children, groups and families await you!

Islamlar is a sleepy village, neighbouring more built up and busy towns meaning you benefit from tranquillity at Villa Fistik as well as accessibility to areas with a range of amenities and activities! Expect a laid back atmosphere, typical of rural life as well as an appreciation of cultural roots!

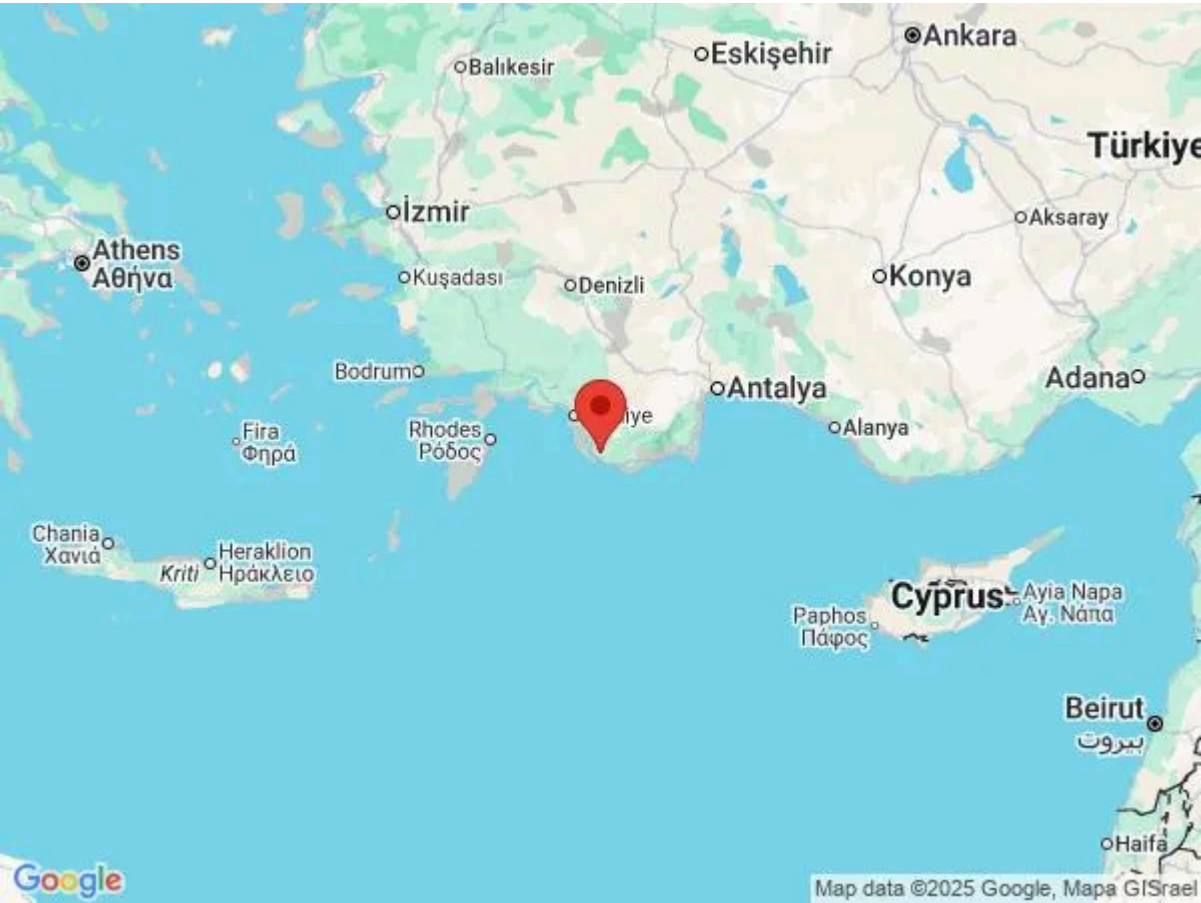

Islamar is located on the foothills of the Taurus Mountain, an abundantly green mountain range stretching across Turkey's south-western coast of the Mediterranean Sea. Hikes, tours, walks and car rides make for great ways to explore the remarkable wildlife that flourishes here. The village is blessed with icy mountain-water which replenishes the fauna that grows on the mountain as well as providing the world-renowned trout, which is freshly caught and served in restaurants on the mountainside!

Visit the beaches on the coast, just 15 minutes away by car! Kalkan's pebble beach and beach clubs offers sunbeds, umbrellas and crystal clear blue water. An array of cafes and bars also offer food and drink here. Kaputas Beach, famed for its outstanding beauty is another ten minutes from here, making it convenient for you to hit two beaches in one day. It's about 100 steps down but the treat at the bottom is mesmerizing azure sea you can grab a drink or snack from the cafe! Patara Beach, a national treasure of the country, is an uninterrupted stretch of delightful sandy shores and crystal blue waters and is the longest beach in the whole of Turkey! There are sunbeds and a small cafe there too.

From Patara Beach access the ancient city from which it bears its name, to witness preserved and protected real artefacts of civilizations from centuries past! The area also boast a host of Lycian sites such as Tlos, Xanthos, Letoon to name a few. There is also the Salikent Gorge where you can wade through the waters or sit on the side enjoying Turkish Cay.

A trip to this coast would be incomplete without a day out on a traditional gulet. Swimming from the boat, enjoying a hearty lunch and if you're lucky spotting dolphins or turtles.

Kalkan offers a variety of restaurants that serve both authentic traditional Turkish meals, a home favourite cuisine worldwide, as well as more familiar and global dishes. Choose from views from the beach, amongst the luscious green landscape or panoramic views from rooftops restaurants overlooking the bay and sea!
