Location & Local Information

The exclusive, renowned Praia del Rey Golf and Beach Resort is 70km from Lisbon airport. It is home to miles of pristine golden beaches, a world-class golf course and long days of glorious sunshine! The championship golf course is the centrepiece of the resort, but it also has a swimming pool, a Kalyan spa, gym, massage, tennis court, cycle rental, restaurants and a clubhouse that you can use for a fee. It is an oasis of relaxed style and world-class comforts in an unspoiled natural landscape.

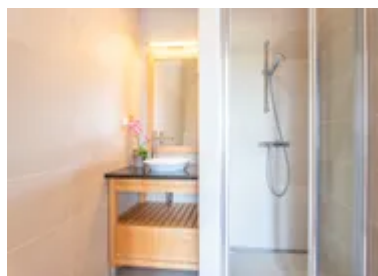

Baleal, Nazare and Santa Cruz are 3 of the most popular beaches and are known for their silver-white sand and royal blue waters. Most of the beaches have thrilling surf waves though some sheltered bays are calmer. Nazare has pounding, exhilarating waves and is a surfers paradise. It is also a very picturesque town which holds quite a number of festivals.

Obidos feels like a walk back in time. It is 11km from the villa. It is so charming, surrounded by a city wall, with narrow, cobbled paths, a well-preserved castle and cute whitewashed homes. The local Ginjinha de Obidos is a sour brandy tippie drunk from a small chocolate cup. You should try it when you visit!

Calda da Rainha is a spa town founded by a queen! In the 15th century, Eleanor of Viseu discovered locals bathing in strange-smelling springs and founded Europe's first hydrotherapy resort since the Roman times. The original spa is now restored as a museum. The graceful Parque Dom Carlos I is good for a visit. The town has a reputation for ceramics so you should visit the dreamy Museu de Ceramica. It is on a romantic 19th century estate. There is also an interesting cycling museum.
